Sink Your Teeth Into Desert Star's New Vampire Parody

MURRAY, UT, December 17, 2009 / -- Desert Star Playhouse kicks off its 2010 Season with "Twi-Lite: I Was A Teenage Vampire." This hilarious parody for the whole family opens January 7th at Desert Star Playhouse.

Written by Ben E. Millet and directed by Scott Holman, "Twi-Lite: I Was A Teenage Vampire" is a comic farce full of romance, nutty characters and a heroic battle of good and evil. High school student Seth Goodman has had a crush on classmate Chelsea Chambers since the 2nd grade. But Chelsea doesn't even know he exists. Then Seth discovers that Chelsea is head-over-heels for a popular fictional vampire. Hoping to win her love, Seth tries to convince Chelsea he's a vampire. Suddenly he's the most popular boy at school! Everything seems to be going great until a real vampire shows up and challenges him to a showdown.

"Twi-Lite" is the first show of Desert Star's 2010 Season. Then it's off to the high seas with the swashbuckling parody "Pirates of the Car-rib-eee-an: Yo Ho Ho and a Bottle of Fun." This is followed by a rollicking send-up of everyone's favorite rednecks in "Beverly Hillbillies 90210." Don't miss Utah's longest running show when "My Big Fat Utah Wedding" returns for a limited 10-week engagement. Just in time for Halloween comes "Welcome Back Potter: Harry & Hermione's High School Reunion." Sparks of magic and comedy combine in this delightful parody! The 2010 season ends with a merry romp about one family's craziest Christmas in "Desert Star's Christmas Vacation: The Bi-Polar Express." Season tickets are still available and may be purchased by calling the box office at (801) 266-2600.

"Twi-Lite" runs from January 7 to March 13, 2010. The evening also includes one of Desert Star's signature musical olios following the show. The "Happy Trails" olio features classic country western songs mixed with more of Desert Star's signature comedy.

Food is available from an á la carte menu and is served right at your table. The menu includes gourmet pizza, fresh wraps, appetizers, and scrumptious desserts.
